建築模型用添物セット
1/100 CONSTRUCTION SITE 012
ARCHITECTURAL MODEL ACCESSORIES SERIES No.12 工事現場編

パーツを台紙から切り離し折り曲げるだけで、簡単に組み立てることができます。ディテールを省略したシンプルで控えめな造形は、建築模型のスケール感を際立たせます。Easily assemble each piece by separating it from the sheet and folding it. These simply designed accessories help to show the scale of architectural models.

Cross-disciplinary strategies, hybridation of issues, know-hows, knowledge...

Awareness, consciousness of the professional as an individual

History, culture, creativity

New issues: environmental issues and climate change Mobility and transportation

An aerial photograph of a city area in Tokyo, overlaid with various transit lines. A solid blue line runs diagonally from the top left to the bottom right. A dashed red line runs horizontally across the middle. A solid red line runs horizontally below the dashed red line. A green line runs vertically on the left side. A red dashed circle is centered on the intersection of the blue and red lines. Labels on the map include 'RER B' in two locations, 'ROCADE', 'Transilien K', 'CD EXPRESS', 'T4', and 'STATION WITACAN'.

The Habitat Professionals Forum

Raising the agenda of human settlement professionals,

1996/98-2008/09

Creation + first phase of HPF, platform for major networks inherited from late XIXth century and early XXth century and post WW2

2009-2010

Critical changes, new orientations, new networking options (ex. Global Planners Network) adoption of a strategic advocacy scheme fro HPF

Draft Charter discussed and agreed at WUF V in Rio

Integrative and dynamic approach of professions as part of the globalised urban agenda

2011-2012

Dissemination of the Charter

Launch of Better Professionals, Better Cities ! initiative

2009 - 2010 – 2011 Habitat Professionals Forum Charter

Advocating for over 4 million professionals worldwide

« The role of human settlements professionals in delivering a sustainable and equitable future »

4 key principles: social, economic and environmental harmony, pro-poor and inclusivity, heritage culture and sense of place, impacts of climate change and disasters + partnerships and market responsiveness

Human settlements professionals and their organization need to base their future strategies not only on declarations and assumptions. They need to take action based upon data, evidence, and facts and illustrate how they can contribute to global efforts against global warming , more balanced urban policies...

(Nairobi, HPF meeting, April 2011)

Professionals, the way forward

- _ Connection needed between habitat professionals and the private sector, especially regarding large scale implementation of urban innovation
 - _ Professionals agendas must be evidence-based and no longer only declaration driven
 - _ Support by multilateral organisations is “quasi mandatory” and sometimes lacking, so to allow for consolidation of strategies in the long run, and coherence of new sets of references and norms, yet to be adapted
 - _ Being pro-active : Paris HPF cycle of dialogues on urban innovation for sustainability, proposal for HPF centers in Africa and globally
 - _ HPF strongly affirms its support to organization of a Habitat III summit “ XXIst century rights and norms for sustainable urbanization”

Making the best, even out of apparently despaired (urban) situations

Invent and deliver a sustainable and equitable urban future for cities and people on the move
